Hello everyone,

I can't believe this is the last newsletter for this year! I would like to wish you all a safe and happy Christmas. I hope you are all having some time off to wind down and have some time for yourselves. I know a lot of you are taking the time to finish scrapbooking projects, so good luck with that! I also have a long list of projects that I want to finish or even just get done so I can start the year in front.

We have all had a busy year and the next one looks just as full on. But before we get to what is going to be happening next year there is one thing I want to share with you. Since this is the time of giving, I have something that I am hoping you will be able to help out with. Off late we have had a couple of ladies who are doing scrapbooking for very worthy causes and would love some donations of scrapbooking products. One Lady does scrapbooking with bereaved parents at the Woman's and Children's Hospital as part of their grieving. Another does scrapbooking for teenagers who have been abused. Both these ladies have to buy their scrapbooking supplies. We are going to have a large box in our store where you can help them as well as us helping them. If you can find time over Christmas to clean your scrapbooking area and in doing so find some items you would like to donate, then place them in the box and we will pass them on. We often have other people asking us for donations for nursing homes or schools, so the more supplies the better.

Now for next year. We have lots of new classes planned along with a new Guest Teacher Tatum Woodrooffe will be joining us and doing some Guest Teacher spots. Tatum is a Scrapbooking Master for 2011 and her scrapbooking layouts are just beautiful. She is widely published so make sure you book into her class. She will be focusing on Boys for her 1st Class.

Louise Nelson will be doing a class using a canvas. Louise's work is amazing and quite different from everyone else. Pop into the store and check it out.

Julie Nelson Kelly will be repeating her gold leafing class. You need to choose a letter and Julie will be teaching you how to decorate it. There are a few of you who have missed it before. This is your last chance to do it ,so don't miss out.

Nat has lots planed. Her Nat's Sketch classes have been great fun. You get to do three layouts in one night. Her Scrapping the Girls and Scrapping the Boy's layouts are perfect for anyone wanting to do lots of layouts. They are held once a month on a Thursday evening. She is also holding a "Catch up Class" so if you missed a class then this is your chance.

Heather's "Box of Treasure Class" has been amazing with lots of wonderful mini books, tags and cards. She is still running classes and will also be doing some layout as well.

Steph has some more new classes planned. Her work is beautiful, she is doing lots of layouts .

Steph will also be repeating her Doilies class. She has also some altered Art projects for you as well. Don't forget her scrap lift classes if you have missed any of her other classes.

We are running Copic Classes again next year. Kathy has her cards classes and "card with a difference" for you next year as well.

I have lots of new projects for you as well. One of the ones I am looking forward to is "my Journal" class. This will be an all day workshop. I hope to do it over the Christmas break so check it out in the new year. It will include stamping, distressing and embellishments. It's kind of a altered art journal/diary with pockets to add keepsakes through out the year.

I am planning a trip to the states late January and will be attending CHA with Joshua (my son). We have managed to get into two of Tim Holtz Classes. This will be great fun, I also will be ordering lots of new lines for the store. Please note that there are some changes to my classes during the time I am away. Please check the time table and make sure you don't miss out on your classes.

We will be doing our Coffee, Cake and Create again. You will need to book in quickly so as not to miss out.

Don't forget to check out the blog from time to time to see what has been happening

www.seriouslyscrapbooking.blogspot.com

From this blog you can jump to our individual blogs and keep in touch with what is happening in our little worlds.

As you can see we have lots planned for the new year as well as an "all day scrap" but more about that next News letter. Look forward to seeing you soon and have some wonderful family time together if you can.

Thanks again.

Jane Tregenza. On behalf of—Kathy, Natalie, Meg, Julie, Sam, Span, John and our teachers Steph and Heather.

Coffee, Cake and Create

Come and join us for an enjoyable 3 hours with 3 of our teachers
You will get to create and take home finished three projects.

You will be able to see the projects in store three weeks before the date.

Each class will be limited , so you will need to book in early so as not to miss out. We will be holding our Cakes and Create on the last Saturday of the of the third month of our Newsletter March 31st 1pm-5pm

Total cost of everything $50 per person (This includes a lovely afternoon Tea).

NEW YEAR SALE

Housekeeping

**If something comes up & you need to cancel your class, please notify us ASAP as we require a minimum of 4 people to hold a class.

**We are more than happy to order products in for you and please understand that sometimes it is out of our control whether the products are still available or there are delays. **We can only hold items for 2 weeks as our cupboard gets too full so please collect your order to avoid items being put back on the shelf.**You may not be aware that the parking bays in the area of the chicken shop are only 15 minutes and it is policed regularly so to avoid a parking fine, please park either in the street or at our end of the car park.
